Standard MC Introduction

Today we have the privilege of hearing from two outstanding young men and the amazing story of their youth. They both graduated from Terrell High School in the top 10% of their class academically. They received all district, all area and all state, honors in football while attending Terrell High School. Sterling Harris was one of the top 100 football recruits in the nation and an All American. Devonric Johnson was offered scholarships to Harvard and Yale, but chose to go to school with his brother, Sterling. They both earned a D1 football scholarship from SMU. Sterling graduated from The Cox School of business and Devonric received an economics degree from the Dedman School at SMU. Sterling went on to play in the NFL for the Cleveland Browns and NFL Europe. He now owns his own business in the finance and real estate industry. Devonric currently owns his own business in the entertainment industry and is an accomplished model and actor. He was on the reality show KEPT on VH1. He also models for JC Penney, Neiman Marcus, and Macys just to mention a few.

Please help me welcome Brothers By Choice, Sterling Harris and Devonric Johnson.
